

Essay Contest Waiver

Parent/Guardian Acknowledgment Form

Contestants are aware that the North American Young Generation in Nuclear (NAYGN) is a nonprofit organization. One of the organization's goals is to communicate to the public about the many ways in which nuclear science and technology have a positive impact in their daily lives and make important and valuable contributions to our society.

By participating in the contest, contestants granted the North American Young Generation in Nuclear (NAYGN) the right to print, publish, broadcast and use worldwide in any media now known or hereafter developed, including, without limitation, the World Wide Web, at any time or times, the essay and the contestant's name, as news or for public information and education on the benefits of the peaceful applications of nuclear science and technology without additional consideration or compensation. The essay becomes the property of the North American Young Generation in Nuclear and will not be returned.

Winners will receive the following awards:
