

Video Contest Waiver

Acknowledgment Form

Contestants are aware that the North American Young Generation in Nuclear (NAYGN) is a nonprofit organization. One of the organization's goals is to communicate to the public about the many ways in which nuclear science and technology have a positive impact in their daily lives and make important and valuable contributions to our society.

By participating in the contest, contestants granted the North American Young Generation in Nuclear (NAYGN) the right to broadcast and use worldwide in any media now known or hereafter developed, including, without limitation, the World Wide Web, at any time or times, the video and the contestant's name, as news or for public information and education on the benefits of the peaceful applications of nuclear science and technology without additional consideration or compensation. Contestants acknowledge the rules of the associated contest listed in its details, including restrictions against copyright material and plagiarism.
